

Now that I've got an amazing, qualified Personal Support Worker, I've also got complete support and absolute peace of mind. It doesn't get any better!

About us

BodeWell Community Care is a family-owned company providing trusted in-home services since 2007. As part of the Knowles group, BodeWell provides in-home community care and services, working alongside our partners in residential aged care and retirement living communities.

At BodeWell, we believe that everyone is unique. By listening to your life's journey, we can better understand your needs. Our goal is to work with you so you can continue to enjoy your home, lifestyle and community for as long as you like in the way you choose.

Our relationship-first approach recognises the value of the relationships between clients, support staff and family members.

We put our clients and their care at the heart of everything we do. By partnering with you, we work hard to build a genuine and trusting relationship with each other.

Our values are at the heart of what we do.
